

GUY STUFF

Available at Princeton Speech- Language & Learning Center

Understanding the complex feelings, physical changes, increased social expectations and “hidden rules” of adolescence can be particularly challenging for boys diagnosed with social learning needs such as ADHD, Asperger’s or higher-verbal autism spectrum diagnoses. This population of boys needs much more comprehensive information around these topics yet very few receive the education they need.

Guy Stuff is a fun, interactive program taught from a social learning perspective to help boys increase their social understanding while providing parents with the information they need to communicate about these topics.

Back by popular demand, Ryan Wexelblatt LSW, CAS will offer this important program for:
Middle School boys: Grades 6,7, 8

Saturdays (3 classes):
April 29, May 6, May 13
4:00 pm to 6:00 pm
Cost: $375

Sign up Today!

Don't Miss Out, Space is Limited.

Call (609) 924-7080

Age-Appropriate Topics Taught in Guy Stuff Include:

- Hygiene
- Puberty
- Reproductive anatomy
- Healthy body image
- Language: Understanding correct terms and slang
- Socially appropriate behaviors at home & school
- Safe/appropriate internet & socially media usage
- Sexuality
- Sharing information with others
- Understanding how friendships and relationships develop

